1 DAY OSAKA WALKING TOUR (Lunch)

Travel by bus to the Aerial Garden Observatory, where you will get a sweeping view of Osaka. After lunch, visit Osaka Castle, built in 1583 as the intended capital of Japan, before the capital was moved to Edo (now known as Tokyo). Walk through the newly renovated castle while learning from the exhibit detailing life in old Osaka. From there, walk to the nearby river boat dock to board the Aqua Liner for an hour-long cruise around Nakanoshima.

Itinerary

You will walk to the following places:

Aerial Garden Observatory

The Aerial Garden observatory is on the 40th floor of the building and allows you to enjoy full view of the city of Osaka.

Osaka Castle

Osaka Castle is noted for its magnificence and immense stones used in its construction.

The castle, towering over the city, stands on a stone rampart.

Many relics of the Toyotomi who built the castle originally, and Old Osaka are exhibited inside.

Aqua Liner

Enjoy a 60-minute boat ride with passing views of Osaka Castle, Twin Towers, City Hall on Nakanoshima Isle, etc.
